

Please keep the No Call list restricted and as is. I have just started to enjoy my family without soliciting during our precious family time. If I need to contact some Company, I will do it on my own selected time. I have had callers electronically call me back to back. It is very bothersome. Banks can advertise and I will choose who I want to do my business with. Thanks! Kathy Emshoff